Splendid Building Lot for Sale.
Offer for sale one of the most beautiful building lots in the city, fifty feet front on a broad and lighted street, and running back 200 feet to a 20-foot alley. The neighborhood is improving very rapidly, and any one who wishes to build an elegant residence this lot presents a fine opportunity for location. For terms, &c., apply to the undersigned.

WM. MCARRELL,
New Market, 306 West Jefferson.

All those with impaired vision, who doubt the sincerity of Mr. Smeek's advertisement, we sincerely urge to visit his Optic Institute, consult him, and procure a pair of his glasses.

Those afflicted with any disease of a delicate nature may obtain the best of medical aid at Gales' Head Dispensary, 820 Fifth street. A Medical Report on three lines, with twenty-six illustrations, may be had gratis application. Address box 720, Louisville, Ky.

TRUNKS.—Those who would save money will stand their own interest when they buy any kind of valise, carpet-bags, traveling bags, or ladies' bonnet-bags, to call at the Trunk Emporium of Edward Stewart, Nos. 255 Market street, south side, between Second and Third streets. If you would buy a good article, let me go there.

WATSON AND SWEENEY AT COST.—W. Ramsey, on Third street, between Main and Market, is selling out cost, for cash only. He has a great variety of fine watches, jews, silver ware, clocks, spectacles, gold, etc. Call and see for yourselves.

A FINE TIME—There is great fearfulness of the stock of dry goods, such as, doors, shells, glass, &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville. It is interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Ellis & Co., have enlarged their factory and now have on hand several million of dry lumber. Call and see on Main street, just opposite the Old Home, or at their factory at Falton, above Preston street.

TRUNKS.—Among the worthies of the attention of the public in Louisville, at the present time, is the great trunk-manufacturer and emporium of J. H. McCleary, at the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets. His large manufacturer enables him to supply trucks, valises, boxes, and hat boxes, carpet bags, bunks, trunks, etc., of the very best quality, at unprecedented low prices. All of Mr. McCleary's work is beautiful as well as durable goods. Give him a call.

Look to Your Interests.
The people are aware that D. O. Hare, No. 227 Main street, is the oldest, largest and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should be advised by Mr. O'Hare, to the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets.
